FYT

Success

Two long-term members of Finchley Youth Theatre, situated in the High Road, East Finchley, have won parts in a new Channel 4 production of Teachers. They were selected after a casting agent held auditions at the FYT and then attended rehearsals and filming in a disused school in Bristol, where the programme is set.

Eighteen-year-old Kelly Brennan and nineteen year old Keir Mills modestly feel that their faces fitted at the time! You can be the judge of that when the series is shown in eight 50-minute episodes early next year. Some viewers will probably recognise Andrew Lincoln (Egg in This Life) and James Corden (the fat caretaker from Hollyoaks).

Kelly plays Tanya, a stropky but intelligent teenager with a chip on her shoulder and Keir plays Teddy, who is a bit of a weirdo. Both intend to continue their studies after the TV series.

If you want to know more about Finchley Youth Theatre, 'phone 020 8883 9957 or write to them at 142 High Road, East Finchley, London N2 9ED.

ARTS AND CINEMA

By GEOFF GARFIELD

Phoenix Features

For those who may not be in the know, and I am presuming that applies to a few of you out there, let me take time out to tell you of some of the features that the Phoenix Cinema has on offer.

I'll try not to sound like a "did you know?" column, but the fact is - did you not know that you can receive a weekly film list by e-mail? Every Monday, if you are on the net, you will be able to receive an up-date on what is happening that week, just drop by the cinema and ask for the e-mail listing form.

Friends & Family

As if that is not enough, by becoming a Friend of the Phoenix you can get a 50 pence discount each time you visit, plus two free tickets worth between £7 and £10 depending on the time of the film showing. You are also entitled to two guest tickets per annum so that a companion can come along at a reduced rate. Add to this the monthly Phoenix News Brochure, a quarterly letter with discount offers, reduced admission to other art house cinemas, plus many other goodies. All this for the measly sum of £15 for single, £25 for double and £35 for family membership, that is five people at the same address - makes you want to rush out and start a family, doesn't it?

Film Fun

I wonder how many readers knew about the Film Club held at the Bull Arts Centre in uptown Barnet. Ten weeks of debates, lectures and workshops on film issues started on 21 September so check for availability if tempted. Ring Ruth at the Phoenix on 020 8444 6789.

Now for future programmes: Up to 13 October Billy Elliot, the first movie by renowned theatre director Stephen Daldry. From 13 October Goya; Sunday matinees on 15 October Nora plus Wilde. 22 October, in connection with black history month, a screening of The Hurricane plus panel discussion. For further information ring number as above. Good movie viewing.

A Golfing Handicap

By Wally Leeds

I shall learn to play golf - a healthy pursuit,
And shed my tie and business suit.

To have some exercise and smell the fresh air,
Join a club and the friends I'll find there.

I need some gear and so down I pop,
To the nearest town, and golfing shop.

I say to the man, "I want a club and a ball,
And anything else you can think of at all".

"You're new to the game," the man said politely,
And pulled me into the shop ever so slightly.

"If you allow me sir, and my advice you do heed,
I will supply all the gear you will ever need."

"That's fair enough," I say, pleased at his charm,
In his hands I am sure I'll come to no harm.

The man smiles sweetly and it gets broader,
As he begins to write out my order.

"You will need these gloves for a better grip,
And those shoes with toggles that do not slip."

He chooses a bright jumper with an important name,
And promises it would greatly improve my game.

"Now balls," he says, and "pardon?" says I.

He says "they're expensive, but they soar through the sky."

Then sells me four dozen and shrugs at the cost,
And ensures me it is worth it for they never get lost.

He shows me some clubs and urges are bold!
I look at the tag and ask if they're gold.

"Now sir," he says, "do not tire yourself out,
You will need this trolley to cart things about."

Then I try on a hat designed by a drunk,
And look in the mirror to the level I'd sunk.

I buy some slacks of a pattern so rare,
And a pair of sunglasses to cut down the glare.

My hands are sweating and my forehead is damp,
He only stops writing because he gets cramp.

He gives me the bill that is two feet in length,
To load up the car takes the rest of my strength.

With all this money I have to pay,

How can I ever afford to play...?
