

Musical treats on the main stage. Photo by Alison Roberts

Like Glastonbury but without the rain. Photo by John Lawrence

Stalls to cater for everyone. Photo by John Lawrence

Dave and ex-Archer contributor Femke with their favourite read. Photo by Toni Morgan

Dhoom Foundation entertain the crowds. Photo by John Lawrence

A festival to remember

This year's East Finchley Community Festival must have been one of the best ever. The crowds were huge and the weather was brilliant (once the wind died down).

Every part of what makes life in East Finchley so great was on show in Cherry Tree Wood – schools, bands, sports clubs, artists, community groups, good food and drink and, of course, the people themselves.

Our photographers were there to capture the atmosphere. Here's to next year's festival.

Finchley Childrens Music Group. Photo by John Lawrence

Enjoying the festival above and above right, Photos by John Lawrence

How many words in

THE ARCHER?

Thanks to everyone who entered our competition at the festival to guess the number of words in the June issue of The Archer. The correct answer was 11,945.

Congratulations to our winner Dennis Evans, of Helen Close, who came very close with a guess of 12,000. He wins £15.

Second prize of £10 goes to Tommy, of Chamberlain Road, who guessed 11,750, and third prize of £5 goes to Margaret Pemberton, of Brook Walk, who guessed 12,530.

Simply Saxes. Photo by Toni Morgan

Folk music on the community stage. Photo by Alison Roberts

Painted face photo by Toni Morgan

East Finchley Baptist Church

Just off the High Road in Creighton Avenue N2

Sunday Mornings at 10.30 am

For more information
please contact the Church Office
Tel: 8883 1544 (Minister: Simon Dyke)

Visitors always welcome