Strawberry Vale

On 20 January, the National Grid closed down one of the two meters supplying the estate, replacing it two days later. Laurence Williamson, chair of the Strawberry Vale Residents Association, said:

"The Peabody Trust initially claimed that the National Grid supply was unsafe. This was quickly and conclusively disproved". The National Grid have stated that their supply is safe, and a split water pipe in the old one had been lowering pressure.

However, at the time of writing and despite media coverage by LBC and ITV, and a visit from MP Mike Freer, the Peabody Trust has still refused to reconnect the supply.

Instead, residents say that they have been offered supermarket vouchers if they choose to have an electric cooker, and advice on cutting the costs of using electricity (including night storage heating).

As part of their legal action, residents can sign up for compensation claims on a no win, no fee basis.

The legal hearing was scheduled to take place at the Royal Courts of Justice on Friday 4 March at 2pm.

Peabody said in a statement early in February: "We apologise for the continuing disruption at Strawberry Vale. We have offered to provide and install a choice of cookers/hobs to all affected residents for free.

"Alternatively, if residents would prefer to obtain their own electric cooker we will provide £500 to enable them to do so. In the interim we continue to provide temporary cookers and hotplates.

"Our staff continue to work with the community and volunteers to support residents.

Oak Lodge School opens its own

shop

By Diana

Cormack

Oak Lodge is a special school maintained by Barnet Council for young people between the ages of 11 and 19 who have complex learning difficulties and autism. In early February the school opened a shop at 132 East End Road, a few minutes' walk from its site in Heath View.

'The Lodge' is a unique project which offers students meaningful work experience and raises the profile of youngsters with disabilities within the local community. The generosity of an Oak Lodge parent has funded and arranged the entire shop re-fit.

It will be supported by the Oak Lodge Foundation Trust 'Hearts of Oak' while donations from the Hadley Trust, Jesus Hospital Charity and Finchley Charities have enabled this important project to go ahead.

Acquiring a range of skills

The shop will sell seasonal gifts, cards and stationery and the students will be involved in all aspects of the business including purchasing stock, display, pricing, marketing and accounting as well as the all-important customer service.

Young people from Barnet and Southgate College's Oak Bridge 19 – 35 provision will also be working at the shop. The aim is to be able to offer appropriate retail qualifications to increase employability significantly and to improve outcomes for the students.

An exciting aspect of the project is that it can use retail space to showcase goods produced in the local community such as artwork, jewellery and crafts. The bigger vision is for local volunteers to work in the shop and increase the opening hours.

At present The Lodge is open from 10am – 2pm on Monday to Friday in term time only. If you are interested in any way, pop into the shop, phone 020 8444 5400 or the school on 020 8444 6711 or email info@oaklodge.barnet.sch.uk
