Panel to advise on sites of historic interest

Barnet Council is considering setting up a panel of building and planning experts, along with community representatives, to help advise on planning applications that may have a significant impact on sites of historic interest.

The Heritage Advisory Panel's advice would be included in planning committee reports or made directly to planning officers to help inform decision making.

Members would be asked to consider applications relating to sites of architectural importance, and those on the Local List of buildings with heritage value. For more information, and to give your views on the idea, visit engage.barnet.gov.uk

Site opposite station goes up for auction... at close to £5million

By Diana Cormack

The controversial question about the development of the site at 12-18 High Road, opposite the tube station, has often been aired in The Archer. Previously occupied by the GLH mini cab and courier service, planning permission was first granted for it nearly three years ago (The Archer, September 2017) despite vigorous opposition by locals and the Finchley Society.

A subsequent increase in the planned number of flats to 25 added to the objections, including from those worried about the lack of parking in the development and about road safety. This particularly involves the access and exit for service vehicles straight onto an extremely busy part of the High Road, along with disruption to the area in general.

Watchful eyes have seen little action behind the long-standing hoarding that surrounds the site; that is until boards appeared on it in the middle of last month announcing that the site would be auctioned on 26 March.

To quote the listing: "Lot 27: Planning consent granted for 25 flats (with no affordable housing requirement) and B1 Office on the ground and lower ground floor." The guide price was £4,750,000.

Memories of victory celebrations

This year in May the country will be remembering VE Day (Victory in Europe) and in August VJ Day (Victory over Japan) both of which took place 75 years ago.

If you or any one you know has memories and/or photos of these events and their celebrations which you would like to share with our readers, please email them by Friday 10 April to news@the-archer.co.uk or write to us at The Archer, PO Box 3699, London N2 2DE. Thank you.
